UNIVERSITY OF NEW ENGLAND'S GRIEVANCE POLICY FOR ADDRESSING COMPLAINTS OF SEX DISCRIMINATION AND SEX-BASED HARASSMENT

.) Please refer to https://www.une.edu/title-ix-civil-rights-compliance for the most current Policy.

This Policy has several components that can be accessed through the use of the hyperlinks provided below. Those components are:

This Policy applies to reports of sex discrimination when a student is a party.

The University of New England ("the University" or "UNE") is committed to maintaining a fair and respectful environment for living, work, and study. To that end, and in accordance with federal and state law and University policy, the University prohibits any member of the faculty, staff, administration, trustees, student body, vendors, volunteers, or visitors to campus, whether they are guests, patrons, independent contractors, or clients, from harassing and/or discriminating against any other member of the University community because of that person's race, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity and/or expression, ethnicity or national origin, religion, age, creed, color, genetic information, physical or mental disability, HIV status, or status as a veteran.

This Policy specifically prohibits any and all forms of sex discrimination or sex-based harassment and all forms of sexual misconduct, including sexual assault, dating violence, domestic violence, stalking, and sexual exploitation. This Policy also addresses consensual sexual or romantic interactions where a supervisory relationship exists.

Every member of this University community is expected to uphold this Policy as a matter of mutual respect and fundamental fairness in human relations. Every student of this institution has a responsibility to behave in accordance with this Policy as a condition of enrollment. Further, every University employee has an obligation to observe (1)E-1.33 TD[to obserphyushere(o)10 (n, 10.99 (ac)4e m)7 (ent)2 (al)6 ( )e md thie al (i)16of aterd, c

Consistent with federal and state law and University policy, the University of New England is committed to the fundamental concept of equal opportunity for all of the members of the University community. The requirements and protections of this Grievance Procedure apply equally regardless of sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, gender expression, or other protected classes covered by applicable federal, state or local law. All requirements and protections are equitably provided to individuals regardless of such protected status(es) or status as a Complainant, Respondent, or Witness.

This Policy applies to allegations, claims, and complaints of sex discrimination and sex-based harassment. This Policy is enforced by UNE, and to the extent applicable, in accordance with Federal Law under Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 and its implementing regulations, the Jeanne Clery Disclosure of Campus Security Policy and Campus Crime Statistics Act, as amended by the Violence Against Women Reauthorization Act of 2013, Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, and Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973. It is also enforced under Maine law through the Maine Human Rights Act at 5 M.R.S.A. section 4551 et. seq, as well as other applicable federal and Maine state laws. Inquiries regarding compliance with these statutes may be directed to:

(C) Sexual Assault

For the purposes of this Policy, which means engaging in or attempting to engage in sexual intercourse with another individual, including:

preferential treatment in exchange for sexual activity, and the inappropriate display of sexually explicit pictures, text, printed materials, or objects that do not serve an academic purpose.

A pattern of conduct, which can be subtle in nature that, has sexual overtones and is intended to create or has the effect of creating discomfort and/or humiliating another.

Remarks speculating about a person's sexual activities or sexual history, or remarks about one's own sexual activities or sexual history that do not serve a medical or academic purpose.

Sexual harassment can occur regardless of the relationship, position, and/or respective gender of the parties. Same-sex harassment violates this Policy, as does harassment by a student of a faculty member or a subordinate employee of his/her/their supervisor.

(J) Consent

Consent is the affirmative, unambiguous, and voluntary agreement to engage in a specific sexual activity during a sexual encounter. Consent requires an outward demonstration through mutually understandable words or actions, indicating that an individual has freely chosen to engage in sexual contact.

Consent given at the start of sexual activity may not be understood to apply to each individual sexual act during the encounter.

Each party must clearly consent to each act during the sexual encounter.

Consent may not be inferred from silence.

Consent is not voluntary if it is induced by force, threat, coercion, or deception. Deception does not include insincere expressions of caring or affection.

Consent cannot be obtained by taking advantage of the incapacitation of another, such as someone who is incapacitated by drugs or alcohol, who is asleep, unconscious, or otherwise physically or mentally incapacitated.

Consent may be withdrawn at any time, and if it is, sexual activity of any kind must stop.

Consent to one form of sexual activity does not constitute consent to all forms of sexual activity, and consent to sexual activity with one person does not equal consent to engage in sexual activity with anyone else.

The failure to obtain consent is never excused by the consumption of alcohol or drugs

Maine law states that minors who are 14 or 15 years of age cannot legally consent to sexual activity if the other party is at least 5 years older. Minors under 14 years of age can never legally consent to sexual activity. Such sexual acts are felonies under Maine law.

- a Student or employee who is alleged to have been subjected to conduct that could constitute sex discrimination or sex-based harassment as defined in this Grievance Procedure and who was participating or attempting to participate in the University's Education Program or Activity; or

- a person other than a Student or employee who is alleged to have been subjected to conduct that could constitute sex discrimination or sex-based harassment under this Grievance Procedure and who was participating or attempting to participate in the University's Education Program or Activity at the time of the alleged sex discrimination or sex-based harassment.

Complaint means an oral or written request to the University that objectively can be understood as a request for the University to investigate and make a determination about alleged sex discrimination or sex-based harassment at the institution.

Disciplinary Sanctions means consequences imposed on a Respondent following a determination under this Grievance Procedure that the Respondent violated the University's prohibition sex discrimination or sex-based harassment.

Party means Complainant or Respondent.

Peer Retaliation means Retaliation by a Student against another Student.

Relevant means related to the allegations of sex discrimination or sex-based harassment under investigation as part of this Grievance Procedure. Questions are Relevant when they seek evidence that may aid in showing whether the alleged sex discrimination or sex-based harassment occurred, and evidence is Relevant when it may aid a decisionmaker in determining whether the alleged sex discrimination or sex-based harassment occurred.

Remedies means measures provided, as appropriate, to a Complainant or any other person the University identifies as having had their equal access to the University's Education Program or Activity limited or denied by sex discrimination or sex-based harassment. These measures are provided to restore or pres manner

The nature of the alleged conduct, the geographic location in which it occurs, and the status of the parties will dictate the applicable process for investigating and resolving reports. The Title IX Coordinator or Deputy Title IX Coordinator will assess the complaint and submit it to the appropriate University investigation and grievance process, which are all designed to be fair, impartial, prompt, and equitable.

When at least some of the reported conduct alleges sex discrimination, including sex-based harassment, and does not involve a student as a party but involves at least one employee, the process outlined the will be used for employees linked here: https://www.une.edu/hr/policies.

Policy and/or a Title IX Coordinator may need to initiate a formal complaint against a Complainant's wishes. In such cases, the Title IX Coordinator will notify the Complainant and keep the Complainant informed of the status of the investigation and resolution of the complaint at reasonable intervals.

As part of the initial assessment phase, the University's Title IX Coordinator will determine whether the alleged conduct, if true, falls under this Policy. If the alleged conduct falls outside of this Policy, the University will then assess whether the alleged conduct, if true, would amount to a violation of another policy. If the complaint proceeds to a formal investigation under this Policy or another policy and the investigation reveals that the wrong policy was initially applied, the University will transfer the complaint to the appropriate process for resolution or dismiss the complaint, as appropriate.

(E) Supportive Measures

Providing Supportive Measures

Supportive measures are available to both parties. They are individualized measures offered as appropriate, as reasonably available, without unreasonably burdening a Complainant or Respondent, not for punitive or disciplinary reasons, and without fee or charge to the Complainant or Respondent to: (1) Restore or preserve that party's access to UNE's education program or activity, including measures that are designed to protect the safety of the parties or UNE's educational environment; or (2) Provide support during UNE's grievance procedures or during the Informal Resolution process. To be clear, supportive measures must not unreasonably burden either party and must be designed to protect the safety of the parties or UNE's educational environment, or to provide support during the UNE's grievance procedures or during the Informal Resolution process. UNE must not impose such measures for punitive or disciplinary reasons. Supportive Measures are possible whether or not a Complaint is filed and regardless of whether the Complainant or Title IX Coordinator files a Complaint.

The University will make available reasonable and appropriate supportive measures, which may be modified or terminated at times, including at the conclusion of the grievance process or the Informal Resolutions process. They may also be continued beyond the conclusion of either process. Either a Complainant or a Respondent may seek additional modification or termination of a supportive measure applicable to them.

More restrictive supportive measures are typically only available if there is an articulable factual foundation that would support taking such a measure and is interim in nature while the investigation is pending unless voluntarily agreed to by the restricted party. Below are examples of Supportive Measures that may be appropriate so long as they consistent with this Policy:

Facilitating access to counseling and medical services;

Guidance in obtaining a sexual assault forensic examination;

Assistance in arranging rescheduling of exams and assignments and extensions of deadlines;

(F) False Claims

It is a violation of this Policy to make knowingly make false statements or to knowingly submit false information during the grievance procedure deliberate false statements or knowingly submit false information in the investigation or grievance proceedings of conduct covered under this Policy and the Title IX Grievance Process. In such instances, the parties may be subject to disciplinary action, which may be determined by the body adjudicating the underlying allegation(s). The level of discipline will depend on the severity of the false claim or information as well as professional codes that may apply to the person and may include, but is not limited to, probation, suspension, expulsion, or termination.

Failure to prove a claim of discrimination, harassment, or sexual misconduct does not constitute proof of a false and/or malicious accusation.

UNE will not discipline a party, witness, or others participating in the grievance procedures for making a falsion o34 Tdi2424.8 -ccuiev0.012 Tratme a ornd/ore aga dgacocnse4 (o)10 (ns)4 ()2 (i)6 (on)104.5934 Tdi2424.8 -ccuiev1(

A designated period of time during which a student's conduct will be observed and reviewed. The student must demonstrate the ability to comply with University policies, rules, standards, and sanction(s) assigned for the probational period. A Disciplinary Probation period includes the option of more severe disciplinary sanctions if the student is found to be violating any University regulation(s) during the probationary period. Specific restrictions may also include, but are not limited to:

- Ineligibility to hold an office in a campus organization,
- Ineligibility to represent the University in any on or off campus event,
- Ineligibility to participate in a University-approved Study Abroad experience.

will likely receive a sanction ranging from probation to expulsion, depending on the severity of the incident and taking into account any previous student conduct code violations.

Any student found responsible for violating the Policies on will likely face a recommended sanction of suspension or expulsion.

Any student found responsible for violating the Policy on will likely receive a recommended sanction ranging from a warning to expulsion, depending on the severity of the incident and taking into account any previous campus conduct code violations.

(l) Applicable Procedures Under this Policy

In response to a report of sex discrimination, sex-based harassment, sexual misconduct under this Policy, including conduct covered by Title IX, the report may be resolved in any one of the following ways: (1) by the Title IX Coordinator offering or providing supportive measures to the Complainant and/or the Respondent; (2) by the Complainant making complaint, which will prompt an investigation and grievance process; (3) by the Title IX Coordinator filing a complaint and initiating an investigation and grievance process; or (4) by both parties voluntarily and mutually entering into an Informal Resolution process, as deemed appropriate by the Title IX Coordinator, after the filing of a complaint.

The nature of the reported conduct, the location of the reported conduct, and the role of the Respondent determine the procedures that will be used to investigate and resolve complaints under this Policy. The goal of the University in utilizing these procedures is to provide the appropriate framework for the investigation and, if necessary, the adjudication of these complaints and to provide Complainants and Respondents with a fundamentally fair process for the resolution of such complaints.

(A) Filing a Complaint

Who can make a Complaint?

The following persons have a right to make a complaint of sex discrimination, including complaints of sex-based harassment, requesting that UNE investigate and make a determination about alleged discrimination under this policy:

A Complainant, which includes:

- a student or employee of the University who is alleged to have been subjected to conduct that could constitute sex-based harassment under Title IX;
- or a person other than a student or employee of the University who is alleged to have been subjected to conduct that could constitute sex-based harassment under Title IX at a time when that individual was participating or attempting to participate in the University's Education Program or Activity;

A parent, guardian, or other authorized legal representative with the legal right to act on behalf of a Complainant; or

The Title IX Coordinator, after making the determination specified below.

The following persons have a right to make a complaint of sex discrimination other than sex-based harassment requesting that UNE investigate and make a determination about alleged discrimination under this policy:

Any student; or

Any person other than a student or employee who was participating or attempting to participate in UNE's education program or activity at the time of the alleged sex discrimination.

Who can I report a Complaint to?

Any reports of sex discrimination and sex-based harassment may be made directly to the Title IX Coordinator, whose contact information is listed at the beginning of this Grievance Procedure. There are other ways in which a Party may report a Complaint.

The University requires that any employee who is not a Confidential Employee and who either has authority to institute corrective measures on behalf of UNE or has responsibility for administrative leadership, teaching, or advising in UNE'S education program or activity must notify the Title IX Coordinator when the employee has information about conduct that reasonably may constitute Sex-Based Harassment.

All other employees at UNE who are not Confidential Employees and are not employees as identified

The availability of evidence to assist a decisionmaker in determining whether sex discrimination or sex-based harassment occurred; and

Whether the University could end the alleged sex discrimination or sex-based harassment and prevent its recurrence without initiating these grievance procedures.

If after considering these and other relevant factors, the Title IX Coordinator determines that the conduct as alleged present as an imminent and serious threat to the health or safety of the Complainant or other person, or that the conduct as alleged prevents UNE from ensuring equal access on the basis of sex to its Education Program or Activity, the Title IX Coordinator may initiate a Complaint.

If the Title IX Coordinator does initiate the Complaint after making this determination, the Title IX Coordinator must notify the Complainant prior to doing so and appropriately address reasonable concerns about the Complainant's safety or the safety of others, including by providing supportive measures as listed in Section E of these procedures.

Format of the Complaint

As defined in DEFINTION SECTION (III (D) (Complaint) of these procedures, a Complaint can be an oral or written request to the University that objectively can be understood as a request for UNE to investigate

(C) Dismissal of a Complaint

Grounds for Dismissal:

A complaint may be dismissed for any of the following reasons:

UNE is unable to identify the respondent after taking reasonable steps to do so;

The respondent is not participating in UNE's education program or activity and is not employed by UNE;

The complainant voluntarily withdraws any or all of the allegations in the complaint, the Title IX Coordinator declines to initiate a complaint, and UNE determines that, without the complainant's withdrawn allegations, the conduct that remains alleged in the complaint, if any, would not constitute sex-based harassment under Title IX or this part even if proven; or UNE determines the conduct alleged in the complaint, even if proven, would not constitute sex-based harassment under Title IX or this part.

Prior to dismissing the complaint under this paragraph, UNE will make reasonable efforts to clarify the allegations with the complainant.

Notice of Dismissal

If the University dismisses a complaint, UNE will promptly notify the complainant of the basis for the or dismissal of the complaint;

Ensure that the decisionmaker for the appeal has been trained as set forth in the Title IX regulations;

After a complaint has been received or otherwise initiated and the matter has been determined to fall within the scope of this Policy, the following process will be followed:

Written Notice of Allegations

Within (of the determination that the grievance procedures under this section applies

Extensions of any timeframes set forth in this Policy may be granted on a case-by-case basis for good cause shown with all parties receiving notice and the reason for any delay.

Interviews

The Investigator will communicate with and interview both parties and will provide both parties with the opportunity to identify witnesses and or documents, such 26.99 l9 the

and their advisors have traveled to and prepared for shall will generally not be granted, while a request for a five day pause in the middle of investigation interviews to allow a party to obtain certain documentary evidence shall will generally be granted.

The Title IX Coordinator, the Associate Vice President of Human Resources & Chief Human Resources Officer, or designee shall have sole judgment to grant further pauses in the Process.

Other Information Gathering

The Investigator will gather other relevant information or evidence, including documents, photographs, communications, card swipe records, video evidence, and electronic records.

The Investigator will review evidence and determine what evidence is relevant and what evidence is impermissible even if relevant.

(1) Relevant evidence and questions

"Relevant" evidence and questions refer to any questions and evidence that tends to make an allegation of sexual harassment more or less likely to be true. Information that does not directly relate to the facts at issue, but instead relates to the reputation, habits, personality, or qualities of an individual is generally not relevant and will not be considered.

(2) Irrelevant evidence and questions

"Irrelevant" evidence and questions do not include the following types of evidence and questions, which are deemed "irrelevant" or otherwise impermissible at all stages of the process under this policy:

Evidence and questions about the complainant's sexual predisposition or prior sexual behavior :

- They are offered to prove that someone other than the respondent committed the conduct alleged by the complainant, or
- They concern specific incidents of the complainant's prior sexual behavior with respect to the respondent and are offered to prove consent.

Evidence and questions that constitute, or seek disclosure of, information protected under a legally-recognized privilege. Legally-recognized privileges include, e.g., attorney client privilege and a medical professional and patient relationship.

Any party's medical, psychological, and similar records unless the party has given voluntary, written consent.

The Investigator may visit relevant sites and locations. The Investigator may also consider publicly available social media or online sources, though will generally not actively monitor online information.

The Investigator may, in certain cases, consult with witnesses who have subject matter expertise related to issues involved in the investigation (e.g., medical professional to opine on physical

Optional Party Attendance at Hearing Panel

Both the Complainant and the Respondent shall each have the opportunity to appear before the Hearing Panel to address the investigator's recommended findings and the material issues before the Panel. The Parties may submit a written statement to the Hearing Panel that may be read aloud by the Party at the Hearing. They may also choose to submit a statement in writing to the Hearing Panel and to not appear in person. An appearance by either the Complainant or the Respondent is voluntary and not required.

Advisor Attendance and Conduct at Hearing Panel

If either or both choose to appear they may each have an advisor with them. The advisor may be a member of the UNE community or if allegations involve conduct covered by the Title IX or Clery Act, they may have an advisor of their choice (who may be an attorney). The advisor is there for support and may not address the Hearing Panel. If the advisor is in any way disruptive of the Hearing process, the Hearing Chair shall ask the advisor to leave the room and the process shall not continue until they have done so. The proceedings of the Hearing shall not be recorded in any manner.

Process for Questioning Parties and Witnesses

The Hearing Panel, as the decisionmakers, are permitted, but are not required, to question parties and/or witnesses, to adequately assess creditability to the extent credibility is both in dispute and relevant to evaluating one or more allegations of sex discrimination or sex-based harassment.

To the extent that the decisionmakers have or permit questions, the decisionmakers must first determine whether the question is relevant and not otherwise impermissible prior to the question being posed, and must explain any decision to exclude a question as not relevant or otherwise impermissible. If the decisionmakers determines that a party's question is relevant and not otherwise impermissible, then the question must be asked except that UNE will not permit questions that are unclear or harassing of the party or witness being questioned. The decisionmakers must give a party an opportunity to clarify or revise a question that the decisionmaker has determined is unclear or harassing and, if the party sufficiently clarifies or revises a question to satisfy the terms of this paragraph, the question must be asked.

The Hearing Panel may choose to place less or no weight upon statements by a party or witness who refuses to respond to questions deemed relevant and not impermissible. The Hearing Panel may not, however, draw an inference about when the sex-based harassment, occurred based solely on a party's or witness's refusal to respond to such questions.

(iii) That, prior to agreeing to a resolution, any party has the right to withdraw from the informal resolution process and to initiate or resume the UNE's grievance procedures;

(iv) That the parties' agreement to a resolution at the conclusion of the informal resolution process would preclude the parties from initiating or resuming grievance procedures arising from the same allegations;

(v) The potential terms that may be requested or offered in an informal resolution agreement,

(A) On-Campus Confidential Resources

Confidentiality is distinguished from "privacy." For the purposes of this Policy, unless shared with a confidential resource, information disclosed related to a report of discriminatory harassment or sexual misconduct will be shared with a limited number of individuals who "need to know" in order to ensure the prompt, equitable, and impartial review, investigation and resolution of the report. The University will attempt to protect the privacy interests of the parties involved in a report under this Policy but cannot assure confidentiality unless disclosure is limited to a confidential resource.

Employees providing the following services are "confidential employees." These confidential campus professionals are individuals with the statutorily granted ability to maintain information as privileged and who cannot reveal such information unless they receive the express permission of the individual, there is an imminent threat of harm to self or others, the conduct involves suspected abuse of a minor under the age of 18, or as otherwise required by law. Confidential resources on campus include:

The Biddeford, Saco, and Portland Police and Fire Departments are the primary providers of law enforcement, fire protection, and ambulance services for our campuses. To report a crime in progress, fire, or medical emergency at any UNE campus or facility, dial 911 (there is no need to dial a prefix number). If there is time and it is safe to do so, then dial (207) 283-0176 for UNE Safety and Security. If you are using a campus phone, dial 366 for UNE Safety and Security. A number of marked and conveniently located call boxes are available throughout both campuses. The call boxes have a blue light on the top and are generally found at the entrance of residence halls and campus parking lots. You may use the boxes to report a criminal incident, a fire, or other type of emergency or to request assistance from the Department of Safety and Security. An interactive map of call box locations can be found online at https://www.une.edu/parking. The University also supports the RAVE Guardian App as a resource for UNE community members to access support and to be notified in case of an emergency. Hospital Emergency Departments (Confidential Resource) _____ are healthcare units that can provide immediate medical care, STD (sexually transmitted disease) testing, pregnancy testing, and preventive care. The successful prosecution of sexual assault/rape cases often depends on physical evidence collected soon after the assault. Each hospital has healthcare providers trained to treat individuals who have experienced sexual assault/rape, with attention to collecting physical evidence. In order to ensure the collection of evidence, individuals who have experienced sexual assault/rape are advised not to wash or change clothes prior to seeking immediate medical treatment.

Individuals who seek medical care following an assault may request support from a trained advocate at any point. SARSSM Advocates are available 24-hours a day to go with you to any emergency room in York or Cumberland County. Advocates are trained to offer information and support. You can call the free, confidential, 24-hour helpline at 1-800-871-7741 to ask for an advocate to meet you or ask the hospital to call for you. There is no cost associated with requesting an advocate.
